

PowerLite IV:

Has an LED light mounted inside a low profile enclosure which can attach to the upper incisor bite plate with 2 magnets. The light can be easily positioned in any area of the incisor plate. The light is powered by 6 lithium rechargeable batteries. The batteries can be removed from the battery case and recharged in an AC charging unit. The PowerLite IV has more than twice the light power output as the older PowerLite III model.

