Joe Roder, DVM, PhD

Director

Cell: (806) 674-2707 · Joe.Roder@huvepharma.us

Dr. Roder has over 30 years of experience in animal health. He has extensive experience in the animal pharmaceutical industry, with over 10 years of experience in professional technical services for industry leading companies. He has also taught at a number of universities, including in the Texas Tech University School of Pharmacy, the College of Veterinary Medicine at Mississippi State University and the College of Veterinary Medicine at Oklahoma State University.

- Bachelor of Science (BS), Oklahoma State University
- Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM), Oklahoma State University
- PhD in Pharmacology and Toxicology, Oklahoma State University

Area of interest: Pharmacology and Toxicology

B. Joe Dedrickson, DVM, PhD

Technical Services Veterinarian

Cell: (678) 428-7405 · Joe.Dedrickson@huvepharma.us

Dr. Dedrickson has over 10 years in clinical mixed practice, as well as, teaching in the College of Veterinary Medicine at Kansas State University. He has extensive experience in the biological and pharmaceutical industry including over 20 years of experience in the feed additive industry.

- Bachelor of Science (BS), Kansas State University
- Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM), Kansas State University
- PhD in Veterinary Pathology, Kansas State University

Area of interest: Management of Coccidiosis, Internal Parasitism and Antibiotic Usage in Cattle

Jay Wade Johnson, PhD

Ruminant Nutritionist

Cell: (806) 679-7104 · Jay.Johnson@huvepharma.us

Dr. Jay Wade Johnson has extensive experience in the beef cattle industry. He has taught Animal Breeding and Genetics and Beef Cattle Production for Texas Tech University and has pharmaceutical feed industry experience in both dairy and beef.

- Animal Science, Bachelor of Science (BS), Texas A&M University
- Feedlot Management, Masters in Agriculture, Texas A&M University
- Ruminant Nutrition, PhD, Texas Tech University

Area of interest: Feedlot Systems, Preconditioning Cattle for Grazing, and Cow-Calf Production
Marissa Munson, DVM
Technical Services Veterinarian

Cell: (917) 282-9509 · Marissa.Munson@huvepharma.us

Dr. Munson practiced in a predominately dairy focused private veterinary practice in Oregon. She completed internships with the USDA-ARS as well as residency training in veterinary pathology in Oregon and North Carolina. Dr. Munson worked with dairy producers in the southeast US for Purina Animal Nutrition before joining the Huvepharma team, where she provides technical support with an emphasis on dairy cattle health management solutions and nutrition.

- Biology Bachelor of Science (BS), Brown University
- Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM), Tufts University, Cummings School of Veterinary Medicine

Area of interest: Dairy Cattle Health Management Solutions, Nutrition

Bill Swafford, DVM
Veterinary Consultant

Cell: (816) 550-5048 · Bill.Swafford@huvepharma.us

Dr. William S. Swafford has extensive experience in field veterinary services, clinical research, global technical services, corporate management and mixed animal practice. He currently functions as a veterinary consultant providing field technical support and conducting clinical research for biological and pharmaceutical product development for Huvepharma.

- Microbiology Bachelor of Science (BS), Kansas State University
- Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (DVM), Kansas State University

Area of interest: Clinical Research