2019 5K Stampede Fun Run

2019 5K Stampede medalists

Over 140 attendees signed up for the 2019 5K Stampede Fun Run at the Gateway Arch Park, and 100 participated in the race that was sponsored by Boehringer Ingelheim. Overall winner and top male runner was Hunter Reed, and top female runner was Dr. Jess McArt.

Over $10,000 was contributed by runners as well the addition of “side bets”. Drs. Eric Behlke and Holt Tripp started with a $200 wager on the AABP Stampede 5K that quickly mushroomed to over $5,000 after Dr. Kee Jim caught wind of the bet. Tripp just slightly edged out Behlke. All funds have been donated to the Amstutz scholarship fund, resulting in over $6,000 total.

Once again, Dr. Hunter Lang contributed $4 for every runner who beat him, and $1 for every runner he beat. With a matching donation from IMV Imaging, Lang donated $842 to the Amstutz Scholarship Fund.

Race results will be posted soon at <http://aabp.org/meeting/5K.asp> (click on View Past Results).

Amstutz Auctions Raise over $87,000!

The combined 2019 Amstutz Silent and Live Auctions raised over $87,000 for the Amstutz Scholarship Fund. The silent auction alone brought in $18,000.

At the Friday night Live Auction and Dinner Event sponsored by Zoetis, the Mark Hopkins Bull sculpture made it back into the auction, redonated by the Southern Crescent Bull Syndicate who purchased it last year, and they bought it back for $15,500!

A plaque will be engraved with the buyers' name, attached to the base, and it will be shipped to them to be displayed in the coming year.

Thanks, Sullivan Auctioneers, LLC!

The 2019 Amstutz Auction would not have been a success without the dynamic auctioneering of Sullivan Auctioneers! Find them at www.sullivanauctioneers.com.
